Awe-Inspiring Architecture Embracing Nature's Embrace

Conceived by renowned architect Tom Kundig, New Foundation Bainbridge House is a symphony of steel, glass, and wood. Its striking silhouette gracefully complements the rugged beauty of the surrounding landscape, while its generous expanses of windows frame mesmerizing vistas of the Puget Sound.

The home's meticulous attention to detail extends to its interiors, where natural materials and organic textures create a warm and inviting ambiance. Vaulted ceilings, polished concrete floors, and custom-crafted furnishings exude a sense of timeless sophistication, while expansive walls of glass dissolve the boundaries between indoor and outdoor living.

Panoramic Vistas of Serenity and Inspiration

New Foundation Bainbridge House commands an unparalleled waterfront setting. From every room, floor-to-ceiling windows unveil panoramic views of the Puget Sound, the Olympic Mountains, and the ever-changing skies above. Witness the gentle lapping of waves, the graceful flight of seabirds, and the mesmerizing glow of sunsets as they paint the horizon with vibrant hues.
