Alongside a motley crew of buccaneers, French duelists, and Spanish spies, Francis ventures into the heart of the fortress, where danger lurks at every turn. With his sharp wit and unwavering resolve, he unravels a web of deceit and treachery, facing unforeseen challenges at every corner.

Book 2: The Dance of the Dead

The Dance of the Dead propels us into the vibrant streets of Havana, the bustling capital of Spanish Cuba. Francis, now an experienced Caribbean voyager, becomes entangled in a deadly plot involving the illicit slave trade and the insidious machinations of the Spanish Inquisition.

As he navigates the treacherous underworld of Havana, Francis encounters a kaleidoscope of characters, from enigmatic pirates to ruthless slavers and vengeful inquisitors. With his newfound allies, he uncovers a sinister conspiracy that threatens to ignite a bloody uprising, putting the entire city on the brink of chaos.

Book 3: The Gates of Fire

Setting sail once more, Francis and his loyal comrades embark on an audacious mission to rescue a captive English princess from the clutches of the ruthless pirate captain, Edward Teach, also known as Blackbeard. Their quest leads them to the infamous Gates of Fire, a treacherous passage said to possess supernatural powers.

In a relentless battle against nature's wrath and the cunning of their adversaries, Francis and his fellow adventurers push themselves to the limits. As they navigate the treacherous waters and confront the formidable power of Blackbeard, their courage and determination are tested like never before.

Book 4: The Shadow of the Swan

In the climactic chapter of the series, The Shadow of the Swan, Francis receives a royal commission to hunt down and capture the elusive pirate,

Jean Lafitte. Francis's pursuit takes him to the hidden coves of the Gulf of Mexico and the labyrinthine bayous of Louisiana.

As he delves deeper into the pirate's lair, Francis uncovers a shocking revelation that challenges his loyalties and forces him to question everything he thought he knew. With the weight of his mission and the fate of nations hanging in the balance, Francis must make a choice that will forever shape his destiny.
